The general operational purposes for which this Church is organized are set forth in its Articles of Incorporation and exclusively religious within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue of 1986 Code (the “Code”) or the corresponding provision of the Code as may be amended from time to time.

ARTICLE III – STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe the following truths:

- A. The Scriptures, both Old and New Testaments, are the inspired Word of God, without error in the original writings, the complete revelation of His will for the Salvation of men, and the Divine and final authority for Christian faith and life. II Timothy 3:16; II Peter 1:21.
- B. In one God, Creator of all things, infinitely perfect and eternally existing in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Deuteronomy 6:4; I Corinthians 8:6; Matthew 28:19
- C. That Jesus Christ is true God and true man, having been conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He died on the cross a sacrifice for our sins according to the Scriptures. Further, He arose bodily from the dead, ascended into heaven, where at the right hand of the Majesty on High, He is now our High Priest and Advocate. Colossians 1:15; Philipians 2:5-8; Matthew 1:18-25; Luke 24; Acts 1:9-11; Hebrews 4:14-16.
- D. That the ministry of the Holy Spirit is to glorify the Lord Jesus Christ; and during this age to convict men; regenerate the believing sinner; indwell, guide, gift, instruct, and empower the believer for godly living and service. Luke 3:22; Romans 8:9; Luke 12:12; John 16:7-14; I Corinthians 12 & 14.
- E. That man was created in the image of God but fell into sin and is, therefore, lost, and only through regeneration by the Holy Spirit can salvation and spiritual life be obtained. Genesis 1:26-27; Romans 3:23; John 3:3,5 and 16; Romans 6:23.
- F. That the shed blood of Jesus Christ and His resurrection provide the only ground for justification and salvation for all who believe, and only such as receive Jesus Christ are born of the Holy Spirit and, thus, become children of God. Matthew 17:22-23; 26:28; 28:7-8; Mark 14:24; Romans 1:4; 8:16; Galatians 3:26.
- G. That water baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances to be observed by the Church during the present age. They are, however, not to be regarded as a means of salvation. Luke 22:16-20; I Corinthians 11:23-26; Acts 8:36-38.
- H. That the true Church is composed of all such persons who, through saving faith in Jesus Christ, have been regenerated by the Holy Spirit and are united together in the Body of Christ of which He is the Head; that only those who are thus members of the Church shall be eligible for membership in the local church. I Corinthians 12:12-13; Ephesians 5:23-27.
- I. That Jesus Christ is the Lord and Head of the Church and that every local Church has the right, under Christ, to decide and govern its own affairs. Ephesians 5:23-27

J. In the personal and imminent coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and that this “Blessed Hope” has a vital bearing on the personal life and service of the believer. I Thessalonians 4:16-18; Revelation 20:4-6; I Corinthians 15:51; II Peter 3:11-14.

K. In the bodily resurrection of the dead; of the believer to everlasting blessedness and joy with the Lord; and of the unbeliever to judgment and everlasting conscious punishment. I Thessalonians 4:16-18; Revelation 20:4-6; I Corinthians 15:51; II Peter 3:11-14.

The Board of Elders may from time to time change this statement to clarify the church’s doctrinal position or they may produce supplemental statements as position papers.

1. The Articles of Incorporation of the Church.
2. The Bylaws.

A Congregation Member may resign from membership in the Church Congregation by submitting a written communication to the Lead Pastor at any time, which shall be effective upon formal acceptance by the Pastor. However, if such resignation is an attempt to avoid the process of Church discipline, the Board of Elders will not accept the resignation until that process is completed as outlined in Article IV, Section 3 above. Though generally such resignations by a Congregation Member not under discipline shall not be formally announced or published, such information is treated as public and available to any Congregation Member or inquiring Pastor from another local church. Any Congregation Member that does not continue to meet the standards set forth in Article IV, Section 2 above may be removed by the Board of Elders at their discretion.

Elders may serve up to six consecutive years if so elected, after which they must take a year off before they are again eligible to be elected as an Elder. The terms of Elders will be established and staggered by the Board of Elders so that approximately one-third of the board stands for appointment each year. The Elders may from time to time adjust the term of a particular Elder to assure that a majority of Elders do not rotate off the Board at any given time.

G. Vacancy or Absence: A remaining term of office vacated by an Elder, due to resignation, death, Church discipline, or other actions of the Board of Elders, may be filled by a new Elder, adhering to the procedures for selection and acceptance. I. Elder Emeritus: Any Elder who was installed and commissioned as an Elder of Church and successfully completed his initial term of office, and has stayed a Congregation Member, may be granted the title of Elder Emeritus at the discretion of the Board of Elders, and may be requested from time to time by the Board to provide counsel and/or ministry to the Church.

- vi. The appointment of other committees of the Board of Elders or the members thereof;
- vii. Except to the extent provided by the Florida Not-For-Profit Corporation Act, the approval of any self-dealing transaction, as such transactions are defined therein.

2. Any committee must be created, and the members thereof appointed, by resolution adopted by no less than a majority of the Board of Elders, and provided a quorum is present. The Board of Elders may appoint, in the same manner, alternate members of any committee to replace any absent member at any meeting of such committee. When any committee is created, the Board of Elders will develop a Charter for that committee describing the purpose, responsibilities, functions and limitations of that committee.

3. The Board of Elders will have the power to prescribe the manner in which proceedings of any such committee will be conducted. In the absence of any such prescription, a committee will have the power to prescribe the manner in which its proceedings will be conducted. Unless the Board of Elders or the committee otherwise provides, the regular and special meetings and other actions of any committee will be governed by the provisions of Article V, Section 2 below applicable to meetings and actions of the Board of Elders. Minutes will be kept of each meeting of each committee.
